

Noon Year's Eve at the B&O Railroad Museum

A Social Narrative for Young Children

I am going to the B&O Railroad Museum to celebrate New Year's!

When we arrive, we will go through a large gate and park in the parking lot. There are trains in the parking lot I can look at.

Next, we will walk to the entrance of the museum. I can follow the signs to find it. It is important for me to listen to directions and stay with my adult.

When we walk inside there will be a large desk. Museum staff will give us tickets, I may have to wait in line if the museum is busy. I can borrow a sensory kit if I want to.

After getting our tickets, we can go into the Roundhouse. Inside there will be lots of activities I can do. There are also some trains to look at in this building.

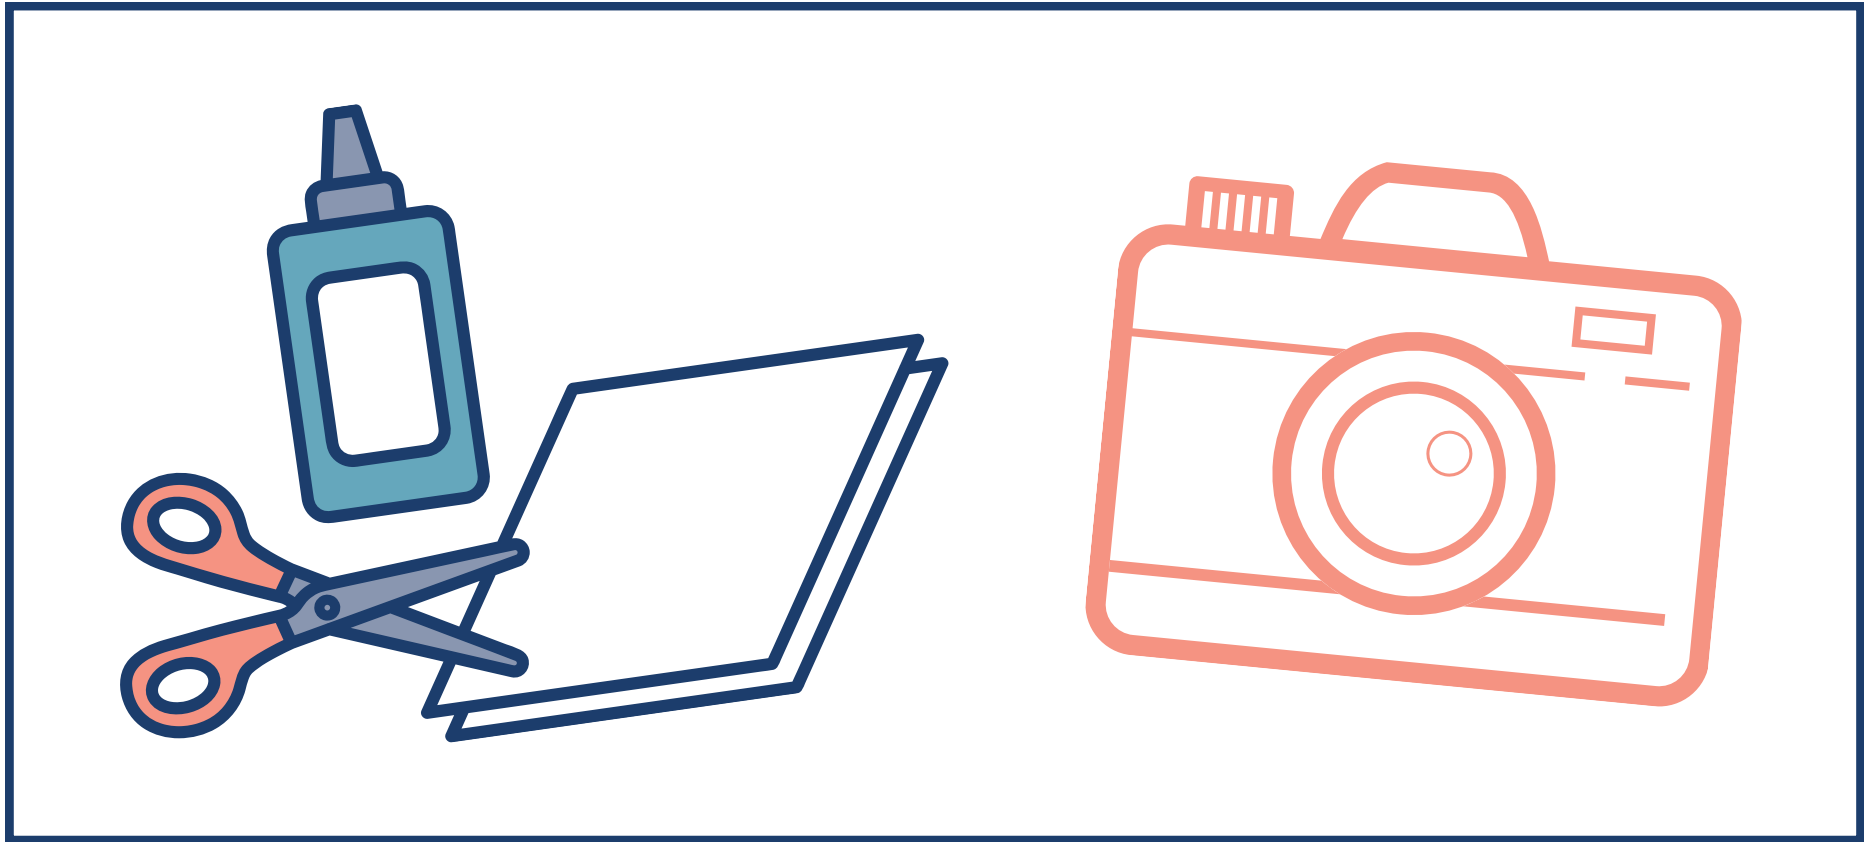

There will be a train ride, I will ask my adult if we will ride the train.

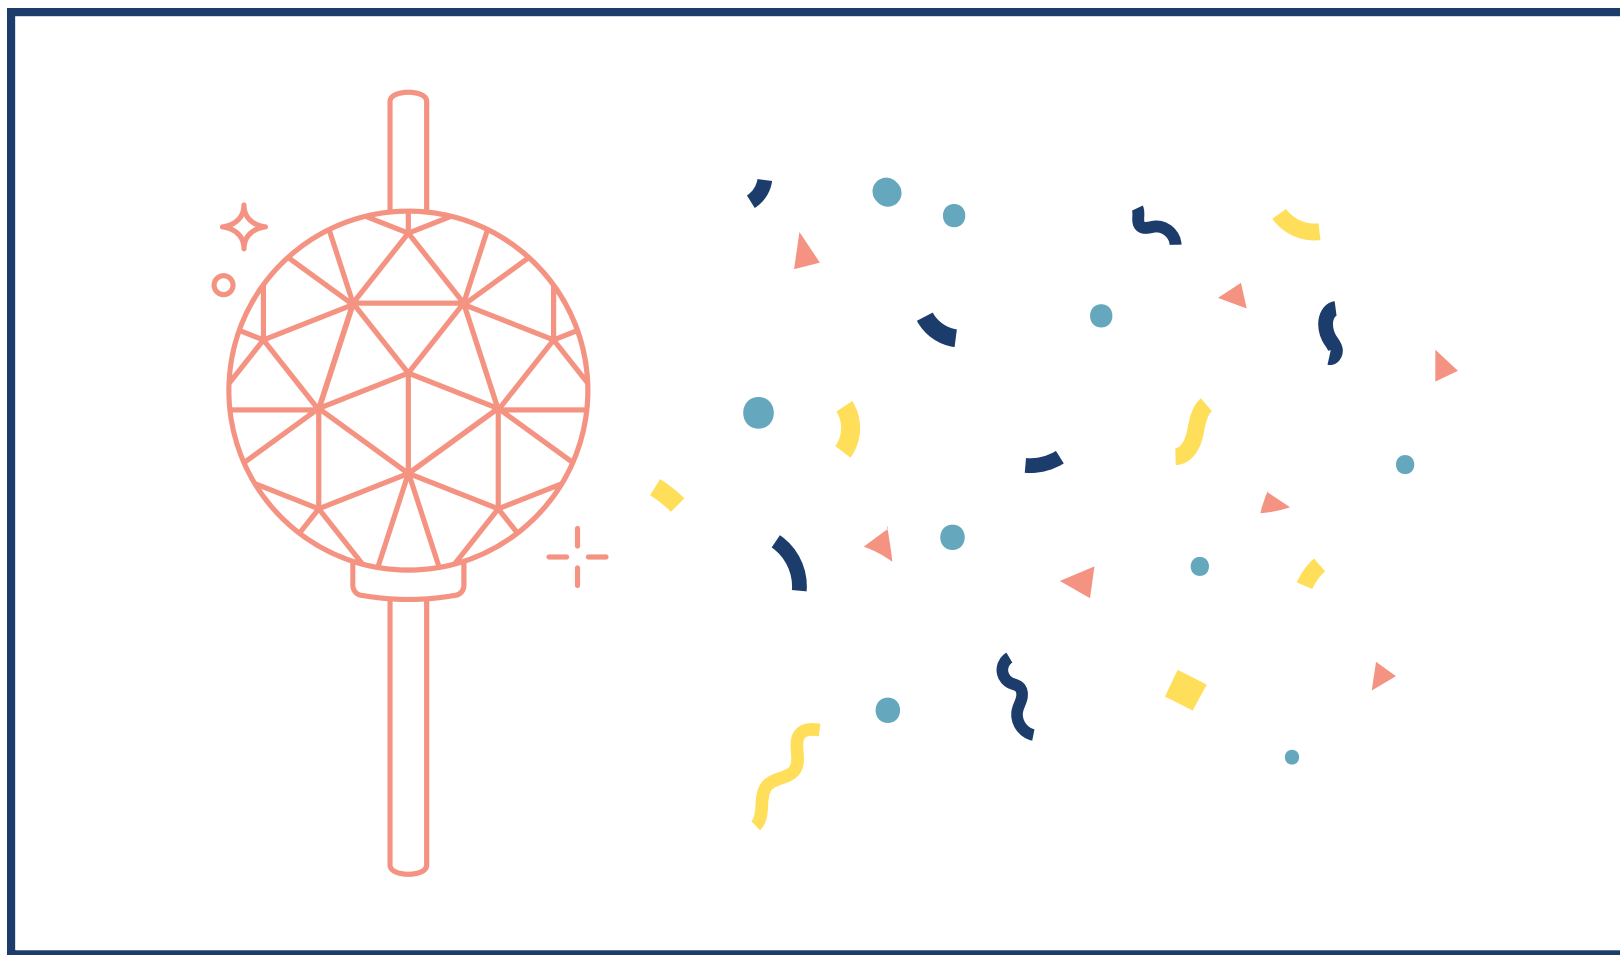

There will be music playing, I can dance if I want to!

There will be games and a scavenger hunt I can try!

I can visit the craft tables to make New Year's 2024 themed props and a party hat. Later, I can use these in my pictures.

At noon, I can celebrate the New Year with juice and the count down to the ball drop! There will also be confetti and streamers. These might make loud noises, I can borrow headphones from the museum if I need to.

The museum will probably be crowded and loud sometimes. I will stay with my adult and wear headphones if the noise hurts my ears.

If I need to use the bathroom, they are inside the Roundhouse. If I need a quiet space to relax I can visit the Bank of America Model Train Gallery near the entrance.

When it is time to leave we will exit the museum through the same door we used to enter. I will have a great visit the B&O Railroad Museum.
