

Noon Year's Eve at the B&O Railroad Museum

A Social Narrative for Teens & Adults

When you arrive at the B&O Railroad Museum for the New Year's Celebration, please enter through the main parking lot.

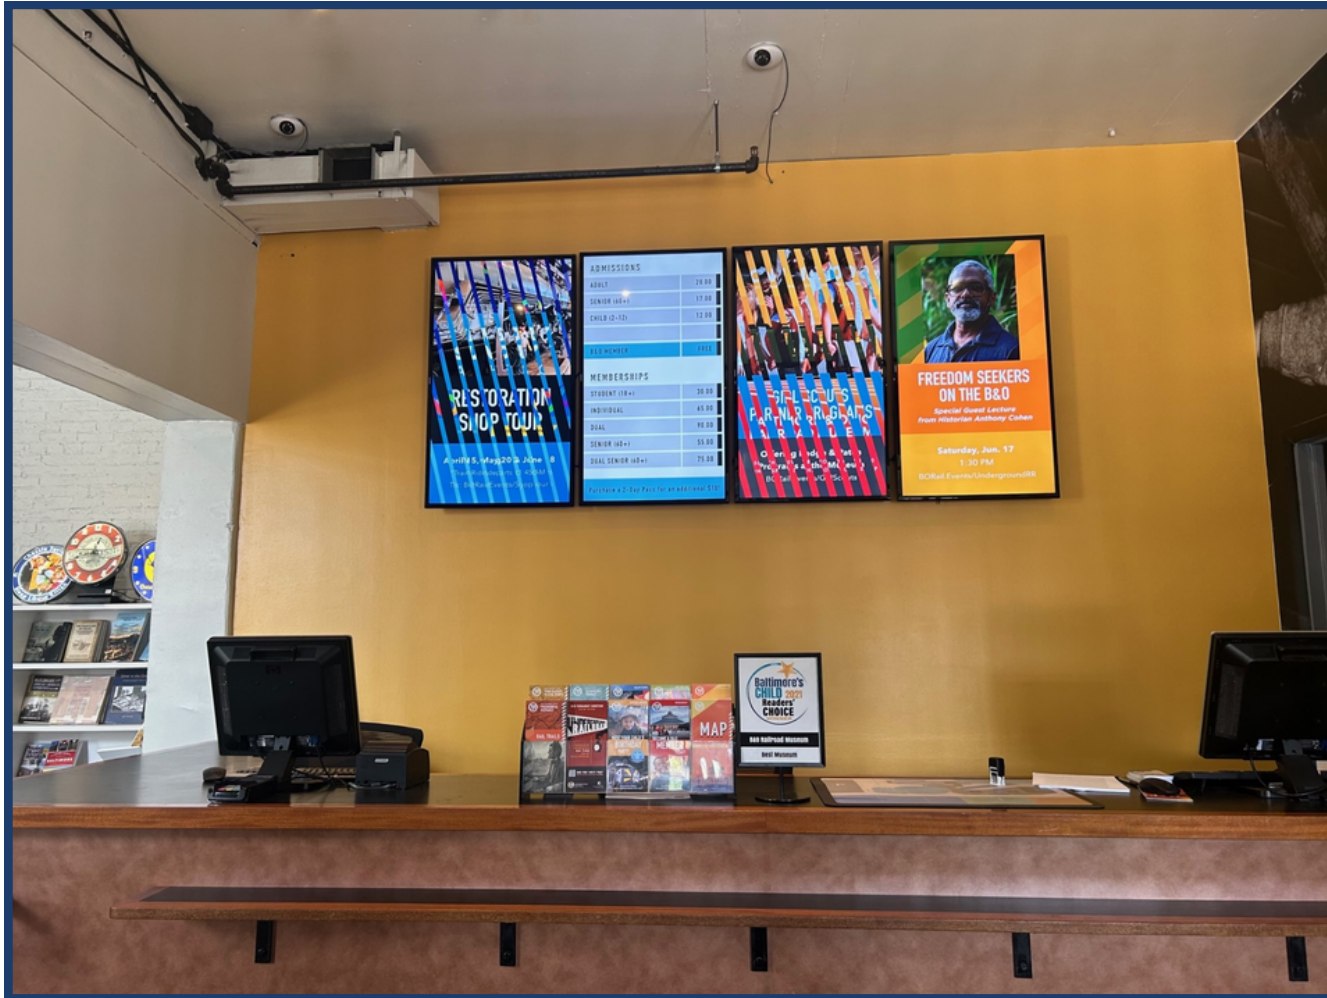

You will go through a large gate and park in the parking lot.
There are trains in the parking lot you can look at.

Follow signage to the main entrance.

Museum staff will help you purchase tickets. If you would like to borrow a sensory kit, just ask the staff at the desk.

After getting your tickets, you can go into the Roundhouse. Inside there will be lots of activities. There are also some trains to look at in this building.

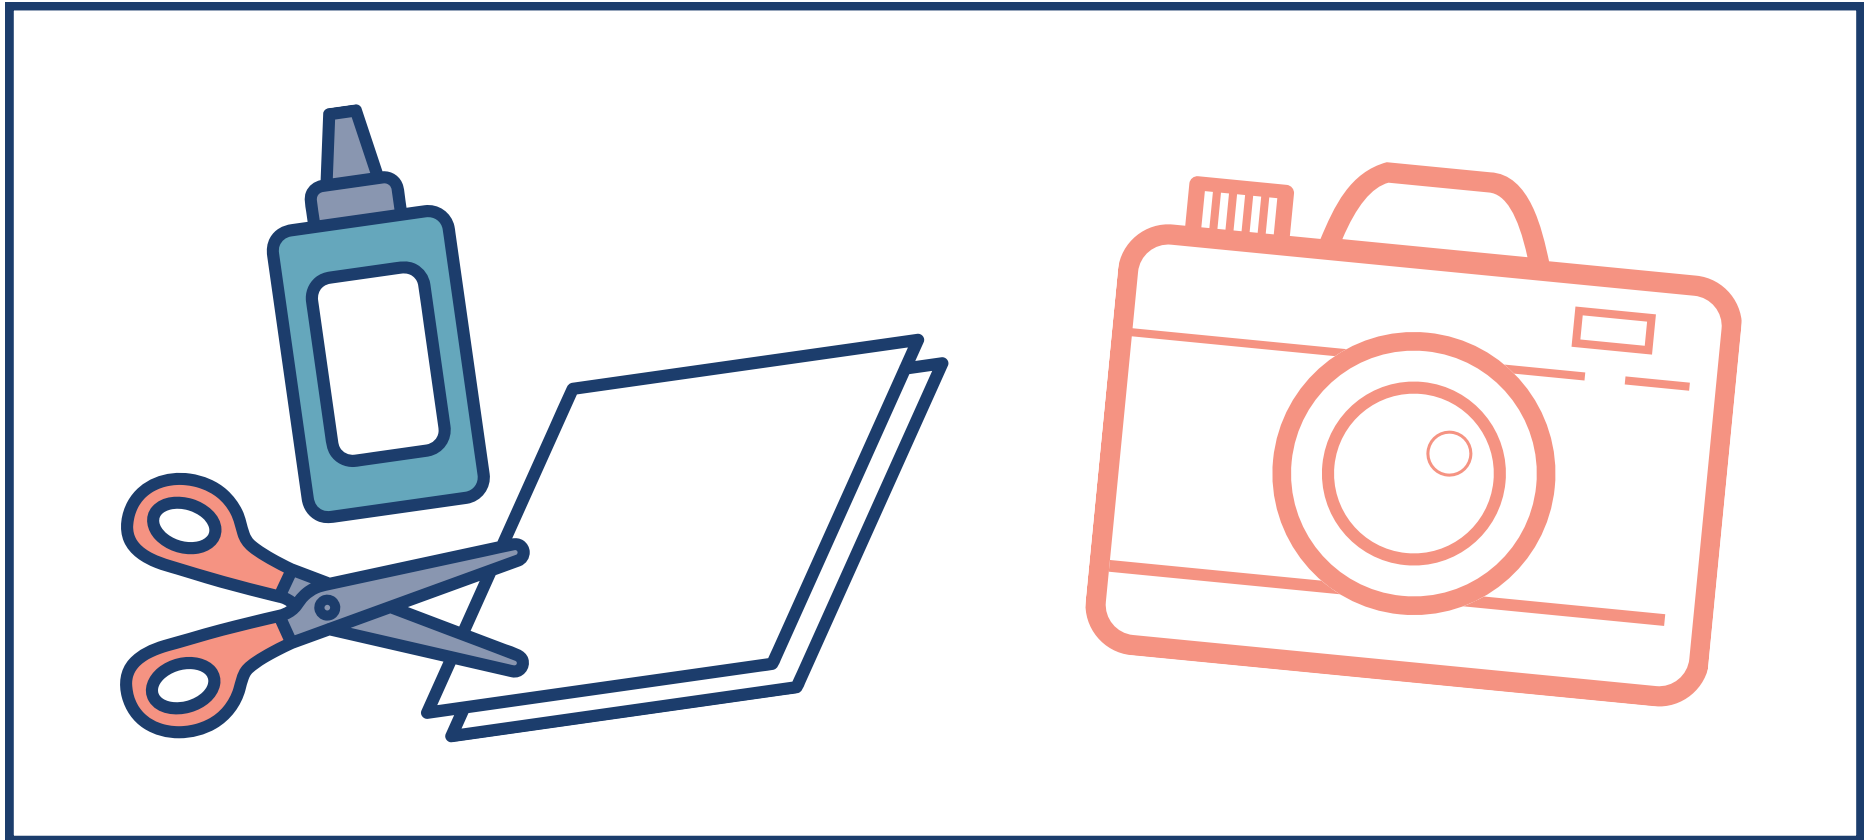

There will be music playing and people might be dancing.

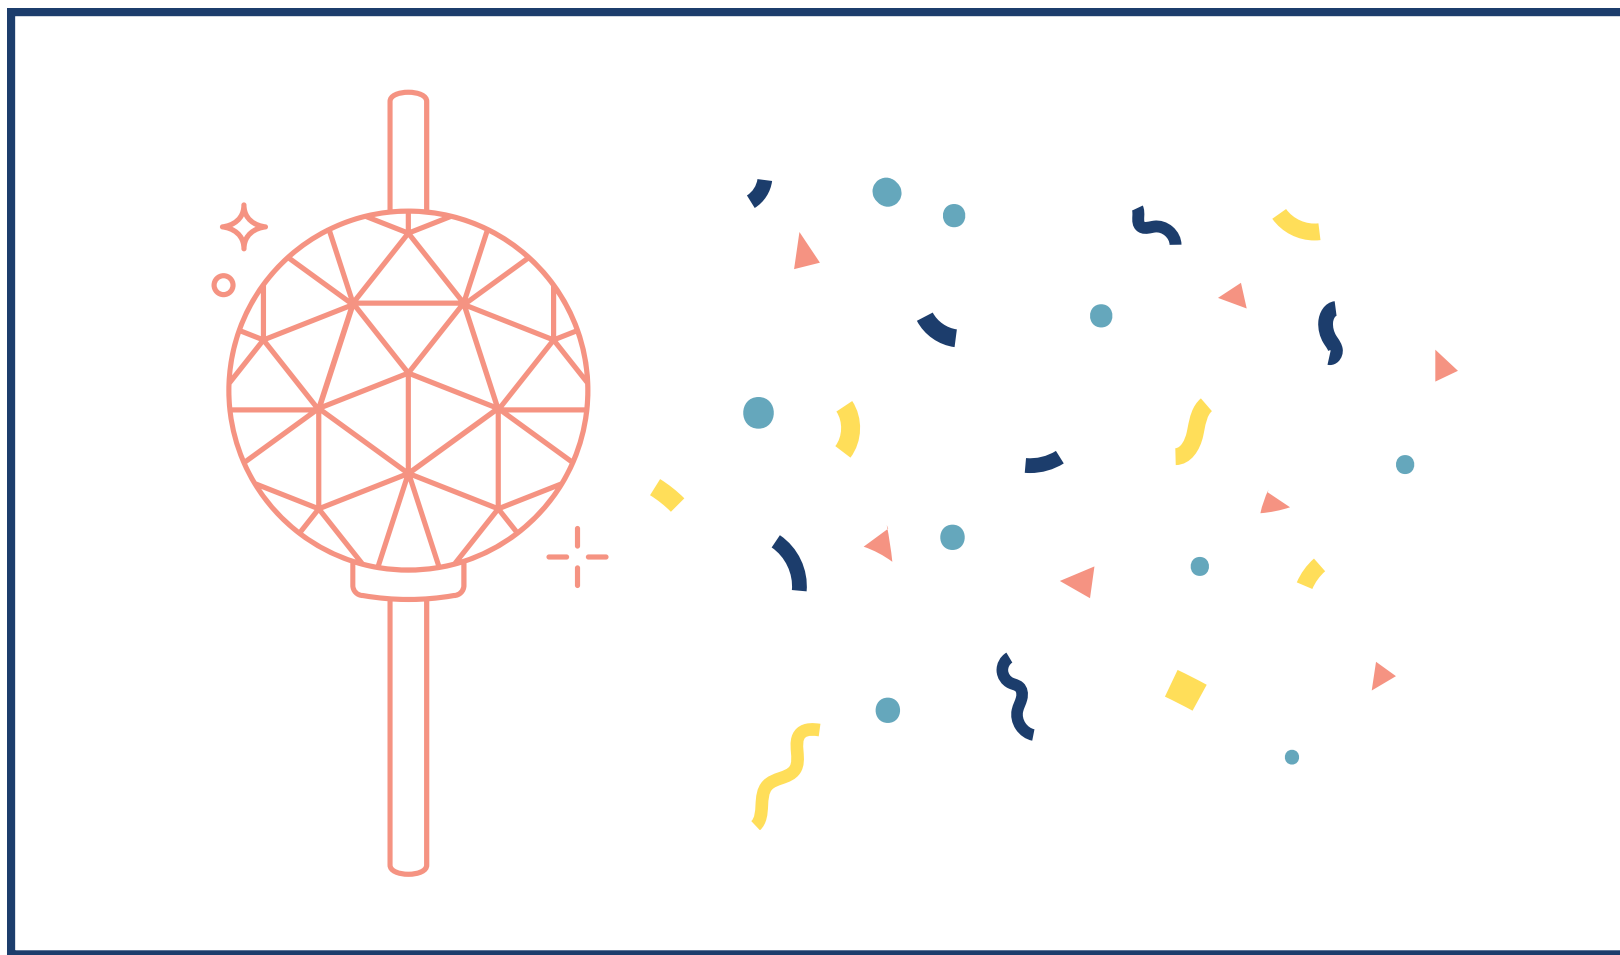

There will be games and a special scavenger hunt available.

The craft tables will have New Year's 2024 themed props that can be used in photos later.

At noon, we will celebrate the New Year with juice and the ball drop! There will also be confetti and streamers.

The museum will probably be crowded and loud sometimes. The museum has sensory kits and headphones available for check out at the front desk.

Bathrooms can be found inside the Roundhouse. If you need a quiet space to relax please visit the Bank of America Model Train Gallery near the entrance.

When it is time to leave you will exit the museum through the same door you used to enter.
